

Business Partners of the International Cross-Mentoring Program

Ana Oliveira Pinto, Consulting and Coaching, Portugal

As a certified coach (ICC and ACSTH from ICF) and experienced management consultant Ana has built a solid understanding of people dynamics within change and development contexts. Currently Ana focuses on leadership development through one-on-one and team coaching, as well as through development processes such as mentoring, action learning and learning alliances.

Cosima Lindemann-Stübbe, Business Coaching & Consulting, Germany

The development of persons in leading positions and the development of organisations represents the quintessence of my activities; ensuring the alignment between people & role, strategy and organisation. Since 2002 Cosima has worked as a business executive coach developing leaders and employees through one-on-one coaching and training programs.

Kirsten M. Poulsen, KMP+, Denmark

Since 1990 Kirsten has worked as a management consultant in organisational, leadership and talent development. She has experience from large-scale, international change management projects and is an acknowledged expert on design and implementation of mentoring programs. She is the author of the book “Mentor+Guiden” a guidebook for mentors and mentees. Kirsten is President of EMCC DK since 2007, and former VP of EMCC.

Lena Mangell, Life & Career, Sweden

Lena is a pioneer in life and career coaching in Sweden since 1992 and author of the book “Life & Career Map”. She is an experienced consultant, coach and speaker at conferences and workshops. Her work is focused on leadership development, coaching and mentoring as well as career development. She offers a number of open educations and EMCC accredited life & career training at both practitioner and intermediate level. Lena is an EMCC SE board member.

Ricarda Harris, Switzerland

Ricarda has a long and successful career in UBS where she worked as a manager with responsibility for talent management and diversity. She then took over the role as the CEO for the Swiss Business Women. Ricarda now works in the private industry, and has an excellent network on CEO level in Switzerland.

Richard Clark, Coaching, Mentoring, Consulting, England

Richard is a highly experienced change consultant, project manager and coach. His previous career as a senior corporate manager (UBS and Citibank) and skills as a certified master practitioner in NLP have enabled him to deliver performance benefits to clients ranging from small and medium sized business owners to FTSE 100 director level staff.

Rita Knott, Coaching, Mentoring, Consulting, Luxembourg

With 26 years of banking experience including 10 years as a board of management member and HR manager with the Israeli Bank Hapoalim in Luxembourg and a diploma in coaching and supervision, Rita now works as an executive coach and consultant focusing on leadership, gender diversity, and the International Cross-Mentoring Program. Rita is an EMCC board member in Luxembourg

Susanne Habran-Jensen, Habran Jensen Consulting, Luxembourg / France

Susanne is a business psychologist with a post-university diploma in coaching. She works as an HR Consultant and Coach and has an extensive experience in mentoring programs. She has spent her first 15 years of professional life in diverse key HR functions within large international companies. Susanne is an EMCC board member in Luxembourg and an accredited coach with the GRAAM.

EMCC, European Mentoring & Coaching Council, www.emccouncil.org, is an organisation focused on improving the quality of coaching and mentoring. EMCC accredits education programs through the EQA, EMCC Quality Award.